

The Academy at Neuaddlwyd Bicentenary

15th, 16th and 17th October 2010

Aberaeron and Neuaddlwyd

Friday October 15th, History, Papers and Discussion

Royal Feathers Hotel, Aberaeron

Morning

- 9.00 - 9.30 Registration
- 9.30 - 9.45 Welcome by session chairman, Rev. Andrew Lenny, President of the Union of Welsh Independents,
Minister of Seion, Aberystwyth
- 9.45 - 10.15 The Welsh Independents in the Counties of Carmarthen, Pembroke and Ceredigion from c.1770 to c.1830
Dr. Noel Gibbard
- 10.15 - 10.45 The State of Education in Cardiganshire 1750-1850
Dr. Eryn White
- 10.45 - 11.00 Questions
- 11.00 - 11.30 Tea/Coffee
- 11.30 - 12.00 The Welsh Academies
Dr. Brinley Jones
- 12.00 - 12.30 From Ceredigion to Madagascar: the archaeology of the Neuaddlwyd Missionaries.
Dr. Zoe Crossland
- 12.30 - 1.00 Questions
- 1.00 - 2.00 Lunch

Afternoon

- 2.00 - 2.30 Thomas Phillips and the Academy
Mr. Bryan Jones
- 2.30 - 3.00 Mrs. Mary Phillips
Mr. Lloyd Jones
- 3.00 - 3.15 Questions
- 3.15 - 5.00 Open forum and Panel discussion
- 7.00 for 7.30 Dinner

Saturday 16th October

1.00 pm Service of celebration at Neuaddlwyd chapel.

The service will be taken by the Rev. Carys Ann, Secretary of Cyfundeb Ceredigion of the Cwrdd Chwarter, and Ministers of the Cwrdd Chwarter De Ceredigion

By kind permission of the Boucher family who now own Ty Ysgol , and the Jenkins family, owners of Penybanc, we will be visiting the site of the school and of the Phillips family farm before and after the service.

Visits are also being arranged to Scythlyn farm, Thomas Phillips's birthplace and Yr Hen Gapel in Pencader, and possibly to Llanbadarn fawr and Talybont, both chapels established by Thomas Phillips.

Sunday 17th October

Afternoon visit to Pisgah chapel where there will be a warm welcome in the Chapel Vestry, and the Honey Farm in Penrhiwgaled, site of the original chapel where Mary Jones and Thomas Phillips were said to have met for the first time.